

And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. But He laid His right hand on me, saying to me, “Do not be afraid; I am the First and Last.

Revelations. 1:17

WEDNESDAY MARCH 18

HE IS THE FIRST AND LAST

The term “the first” means, to exist before anything ever came to be.

And there is no exceptional here, nothing is left out.

Jesus said, “I am the first”, that is to say, He existed before everything.

The book of John says,

“In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God, and the word was God.

He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through Him”

(John 1:1-3).

Jesus Christ our Savior and Redeemer was before all things, and everything was made through Him.

Therefore, we can agree with the statement, “I am the first”.

Such a personality to come down to earth, and seek friendship with the man He created, what a wonderful story, that needs to spread to all mankind.

More fascinating is that, He also said,

“I am the Last”,

meaning when all else cease to exist, He will be there.

When we get to the end of life, He will be there.

Just as He was the one that made all things, He also will be the one to end all things.

He said,

“For the Father judges no one, but has committed all judgment to the Son”

(John 5:22).

Today, He has not ended the world yet, but He is calling as many that will accept, into that relationship He came for.

Those who will accept His invitation for friendship today, will meet Him at the end as a friend.

But those who reject His offer, will be frightened to meet Him, because He will be a total stranger to them.

THINK IT OUT

Therefore, what are you doing with His offer of friendship? Do you know, you will face Him one day? Will you meet Him at the end, as a Savior and friend or as a stranger?

PRAYER:

Dear Lord Jesus, it is wonderful to know that You came to the earth You created, seeking for friendship with the man You created. Lord, I accept You as my Lord, Savior and friend.
